

LIBRARY NEWS

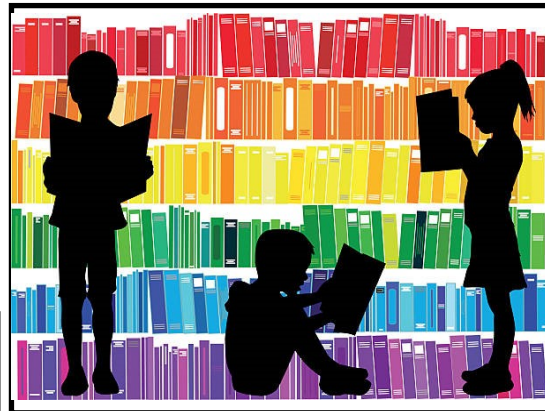

Cedar Lee Library Newsletter

In this issue:

- National Book Month
- New Nonfiction
- Get organized month

January is...

National Book Month:

NEW NONFICTION BOOKS

RL: 2.9 to 4.6

NAILED IT! Set of 12 books

ODD JOBS Set of 12 books

URBAN LEGENDS: DON'T READ ALONE Set of 16

STRANGER THAN FICTION Set of 16 books

EXTREME NATURE Set of 4 books

GROSS HISTORY Set of 6 books

These books have 32 pages filled with fun and exciting facts.

New books are being delivered almost every week. Stop by to see if you can use a book or two with your students.

More free books have been placed on our carousels in the front and library lobbies

- National Hobby Month: The beginning of the year is a great time to start a hobby!
- National Book Month: Get reading!
- National Get Organized Month: Start the year off organized and get inspired by this topic.
- International Creativity Month: Celebrate with a creative project.
- It's Okay to Be Different Month: Use this theme as a discussion topic to prompt kids to talk about various differences between people.
- National Winter Sports TBI Awareness Month: Learn about the importance of helmets to prevent brain injury.

February is....

BLACK HISTORY MONTH
and AMERICAN HEART MONTH