

Suzanne M. Sloane

Scott District

Current Term Expires: 12/31/2023

Professional Bio:

- 2009-Present *Head of School, Virginia Virtual Academy
- June 2001 - 2009 *K¹², Inc.
- Sr. Director, School Services
- Director, School Management, Academic Services
- Sr. Manager, School Management and Operations
- Senior Manager, Evaluation and Research
- Assessment Specialist
- 1990 – 2001 *Manassas City Public Schools
- Teacher Grades 5 and 6
- Weems Elementary School

Education:

- B.S., Elementary Education, The Pennsylvania State University, 1985-1989
- M.Ed., Educational Psychology with Emphasis in Gifted Education, The University of Virginia, 1992-1994
- Instructional Technology Certificate, George Mason University, 1997-1998

Educational Work 1990-Present

- Writer, “Virginia Standards of Learning Test Preparation” — Booklets Distributed to Virginia Schools
- Educational Foundation Grant Recipient for a Student-Run Broadcast Center
- Northern VA Regional Science Fair, Spelling/Geography Bee Coordinator and Odyssey of the Mind Coach
- City-Wide Mentor Teacher for all Beginning Teachers 1997-1999
- Manassas City Public Schools 5 Year Self Study District Chairperson

Organizations:

- The Penn State Alumni Association
- VSTE
- iNACOL

Awards Received:

- 2013 Honored Member, Continental Who's Who Among Professionals and Executives
- 2012 Ten Year Service Award Recipient, K12, Inc
- 2008 Recipient of First Annual K¹² Ron Packard CEO Outstanding Employee Award
- 2000, 2003, 2004 Three Time Nominee Who's Who Among America's Teachers
- 1999 Washington Post Greater Washington DC Outstanding Teacher Award Nominee
- 1999 Manassas City Outstanding Technology Teacher

Personal:

Born in Moscow, Pennsylvania in 1967. Moved to Virginia in 1990 in pursuit of a professional teaching career. Married since 1997 to John Tracy Sloane, a Washington DC Charter School Principal. I have two sons: Troy, attending James Madison University, and Jackson, attending Kettle Run High School. I enjoy college football and basketball, attending my sons' sporting events, travel, entertaining, work-outs at LifeTime, church activities at The Way and sharing time with family, friends and those I work with every day.